RUSHING FRESH SOLDIERS WEST

Germans Force Allies to Ease Up Big Drive.

FRENCH SUFFER A REVERSE

Troops Attacking German Second Line Trenches in the Champagne District Are Either Captured or Exterminated—Teutons Admit Loss of Another Hill.

London, Oct. 1.—Reinforcements for the German army are arriving on the western front and their presence already has had the effect of slackening the allies' offensive.

German reserves, rushed to the aid of the troops holding the second line trenches in the Champagne district, threw back the French attackers who broke through.

According to the German official statement these latter troops were either captured or exterminated.

Should the French be able to shatter this second line its collapse would menace the greater part of the German lines in the west.

The Germans admit the loss of Hill No. 191, to the north of Massiges, where the French are not far from the railway triangle, the possession of which has been of the greatest advantage to the Germans, as one of the lines has been used for supplying the Argonne army.

It is believed here that besides the gain of ground both in Artois and Champagne and the improved position of the allies generally the recent successful operations must soon relieve the pressure on Russia and perhaps prevent the Austro-Germans from sending any large force against Serbia.

PLAN TO RESTRAIN BULGARS

Temps Says French Must Avert Attack on Servia.

Paris, Oct. 1.—The Temps says the French government has arrived at a certain decision as to what should be done to avert an attack on Servia by Bulgaria. The indications are that Russia will assent to the plan, that Italy will not oppose it and that England probably will give her adherence.

The nature of the plan is not disclosed, but the Temps says the situation in the Balkans requires that the prospective Bulgarian attack on Servia shall be prevented by a demand on Bulgaria for immediate demobilization.

This newspaper asserts it has reason to believe reports from Salonika that Bulgaria has definitely agreed to take the field Oct. 15 are correct and that delivery of the territory recently ceded by Turkey is contingent on action by Bulgaria against Servia.

WILL MEET ALL DEMANDS

Germany Intends Disavowing Sinking of Lusitania and Arabic.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Formal and complete acquiescence in the views of the United States with reference to submarine operations will be announced by Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, in his conference with Secretary of State Lansing in New York on Saturday.

Not only will Germany reiterate the pledge to observe the principles of humanity and international law in her campaign upon the seas, but she will offer what in fact will be a disavowal for the destruction of the liners Lusitania and Arabic and in addition will agree to pay indemnity in a fashion which will be satisfactory to this government.

INDICTED FOR ALLEN MURDER

Charged With Slaying Joliet Prison Warden's Wife.

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 1.—"Chicken Joe" Campbell was indicted for the murder of Mrs. Odette Allen, wife of the former warden of the penitentiary here. Campbell is a negro who was sentenced for murder from Cook county and was a trusty at the prison and a servant in the family quarters of the Allens. After a fire in prison last June the body of Mrs. Allen was found in her partly burned bed under circumstances that indicated that she had been murdered.

When informed of the action of the grand jury Campbell said he welcomed his indictment as a chance to prove his innocence.

Greece Offered Territory

Rome, Oct. 1.—Servia has offered Greece districts of Guevgeli and Dolran in Macedonia in exchange for participation in the expedition of the allies against Bulgaria, according to the Giornale D'Italia.

SLAYER REPRIEVED AT WISH OF WILSON

Utah Governor Postpones Execution of Joseph Hillstrom.

Salt Lake City, Oct. 1.—On request of President Wilson, telegraphed from Washington, Governor William Spry granted a reprieve until Oct. 16 to Joseph Hillstrom, sentenced to be executed after having been convicted of murdering J. G. Morrison, a grocer, and Morrison's young son here in January, 1914.

In his answer to the president's message Governor Spry said the reprieve is granted only because the president requested it and he insists that the Swedish minister come here and make a personal investigation before Oct. 16.

The Swedish vice consul here, he said, has gone thoroughly into the case and states that he can find no reason why the board of pardons should change its decision.

FORMER QUARTER ON NAVY ELEVEN SLAIN.

Spartanburg, S. C., Oct. 1.—Montague Nicholls, quartermaster on the naval academy football team in 1911 and a second lieutenant in the British army, was killed in action in France early this week.

An announcement from the British war office was received here by his father, Judge George W. Nicholls. Lieutenant Nicholls enlisted in the British army soon after the outbreak of the war. He was wounded last March and only recently returned to the front.

MINING COMPANY SOLVENT

Montana Court Holds Butte-Duluth Concern Is Not Bankrupt.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 1.—In a decision Judge George M. Bourquin held that the Butte-Duluth Mining company is not a bankrupt.

He reviewed the circumstances attending the recent appointment of a receiver in the state court and concluded that no act of bankruptcy had been committed. The company, finding that its income was insufficient to meet current expenses, applied last March to the state court for the appointment of a receiver. Later employees whose wages were unpaid sought to force the company into bankruptcy.

Operations are expected to be resumed soon under the receiver.

Farmers Holding Wheat.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 1.—Although railways operating in Montana have added extra equipment to handle the 1915 grain crop they are finding business rather slow because grain growers are refusing to sell at the present time. It is predicted by grain growers of this section that wheat will reach the dollar mark by December and there is a tendency throughout the state to hold for this price.

Carranza's Troops Entrenched Near Mexico City, and Gen. Obregon

This is the first photograph of General Carranza's troops fighting in the vicinity of Mexico City, which they have taken and lost several times within the last two months. One day the city changed hands three times. The photograph shows Carranza's troops making a trench of the railroad ditch near the city.

The photograph of General Obregon shows him with his right arm cut off at the elbow. It will be recalled that the first reports from the Villa camp several weeks ago had it that Obregon, who is considered the ablest military leader Carranza has, was dead of his wounds. Later it was learned that he had only suffered the loss of his arm. This photograph was taken of him while he was convalescing from that wound.

Mother Jones is here to intercede for the structural ironworkers imprisoned at Leavenworth for complicity in dynamite outrages.

She says Rockefeller's trip will do him no good.

"I told him to go to Trinidad alone," she said, "call all his men together in a mass meeting and hear their grievances. Instead he is out there surrounded by his satellites, Mackenzie, King and the rest. He is seeing only what they want him to see and hearing only the things they want him to hear."

WIDOW WINS FIGHT FOR RANKIN ESTATE

Will Disposing of Holdings Valued at $150,000 Upheld.

Redfield, S. D., Oct. 1.—Judge Joseph W. Jones of Sioux Falls has sustained the decision of the county court of Minnehaha in the Rankin will case, thereby upholding the validity of the will which left the bulk of the $150,000 estate of Jason L. Rankin to the widow.

Jason Lee Rankin, a wealthy land owner near Hawarden, Ia., disposed of his holdings there in 1911 and moved to Sioux Falls.

He later invested the bulk of his fortune in government bonds.

He spent most of his time until his death at San Diego, Cal., in May, 1913, in traveling. The will was contested by brothers and sisters.

They alleged Rankin was incompetent at the time the will was executed, that the will was procured by undue influence and that the South Dakota courts had no jurisdiction in the matter.

Judge Medin, in probate court, upheld the validity of the will in October, 1914.

Number of Prisoners Taken Is Over Sixteen Hundred—Ottoman Force Is Estimated at Eight Thousand Regulars and a Considerable Number of Tribesmen.

London, Oct. 1.—J. Austen Chamberlain, secretary for India, gave out additional details of the British success against the Turks in Mesopotamia, in which the previous report said that the Ottoman forces were in full retreat toward Bagdad, with the British in hot pursuit.

The statement says the British cavalry entered Kut-el-Amara, ninety miles south of Bagdad, on the Tigris river Wednesday. The town was found to be deserted and the Turks in flight toward Bagdad by road and river.

Along the river gunboats and steamers with an Indian brigade aboard started in pursuit. An aeroplane dropped bombs on one of the Turk steamers.

"In some quarters it is remarked that if the loan is offered for public subscription it will be a strange kind of neutrality on the part of a country which also finances sales of war material to Germany's enemies."

PRESIDENT MAY ASK BOND ISSUE

Plan Means Tariff Schedules Will Remain Intact.

NATIONAL DEFENSE PROGRAM

Wilson Realizes the Necessity of Reaching at an Early Date Definite Conclusions as to the Amount of Money That Will Be Required for Army and Navy Expenditures.

Washington, Oct. 1.—President Wilson practically has decided to call on congress at the forthcoming session to authorize a bond issue large enough to meet requirements of his national defense program.

It became known that the president has virtually determined to recommend that money for additional expenditures for the army and navy be procured through the issuance of bonds instead of by revising the tariff schedules.

This disclosure leaves no uncertainty as to whether there will be a substantial revision of the tariff this winter.

The president will take the position that opportunity has not yet been given for an adequate test of the Underwood-Simmons act as an instrumentality for producing revenue.

He will oppose any important changes to the present Democratic tariff law until the measure has been fairly tested.

President Wilson intends to set about soon the formulation of the national defense program.

The president realizes the necessity of reaching at an early date definite conclusions as to the amount of money that will be needed for army and navy expenditures.

He has had several conferences with Secretary of the Navy Daniels with reference to the views of the general board of the navy and Secretary of War Garrison's plans for the reorganization of the army have been before him for some time.

The belief prevails among the advisers of the president, as a result of the tentative conclusions which have been reached, that the administration's national defense program will call for an expenditure of from $300,000,000 to $325,000,000.

VETERANS AT WHITE HOUSE

Invading Hosts Take Presidential Mansion by Storm.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The White House was captured and President Wilson surrendered to the invading hosts of the Grand Army of the Republic, who took the presidential mansion by storm, and only the complete capitulation of the chief executive prevented a near riot of serious dimensions.

As a result of the invasion nearly 5,000 Union veterans and their wives filed through the East room and shook hands with the president, this impromptu levee supplanting the brief reception which had been planned on the official program.

Kansas City was selected as the place for the 1916 encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEW STATE FAIR FEATURES

Board Approves Plans to Enlarge Certain Contests.

St. Paul, Oct. 1.—Plans to enlarge contests for girls and boys were made at a meeting of the state fair board. A boys' corn show, a boys' and girls' pig club contest and a girls' canning and breadmaking contest were approved. The date for the 1916 fair will be Sept. 4 to 9.

Because of the large number of bills still waiting approval the exact profit of the 1915 fair could not be ascertained.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyet's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

WOMAN'S REALM

"MENDELSSOHN" SEXTETTE HERE

Six Charming Young Ladies, Artists to the Finger Tips, Arrive in City This Afternoon

GIVE THEIR CONCERT TONIGHT

Sauk Center, Where They Played Last Night, Gave Them Splendid Testimonials

The "Mendelssohn" sextette, half a dozen charming young ladies, artists to the very finger tips, arrived in Brainerd this afternoon and will give their recital of orchestral and vocal selections at the Camels hall in the Iron Exchange building this evening, inaugurating the Midland Lyceum course which is given under the auspices of the Baraca class of the First Baptist church.

Sauk Center heard the ladies last night and they took the audience by storm. W. D. Aysgar, superintendent of schools there, said they gave one of the best musical entertainments in that city. The town of Foley was enraptured and wants them to come again soon.

The sextette includes two first violins, a second violin, cello, bass and piano. Miss Lewis is the leader. She is a famous violinist who studied in Germany. The Mendelssohn spring song is given by a quartette, two violins, cello and piano. The ladies are also heard in quartette and sextette singing. Miss Burgess is the reader.

They are called the Mendelssohns because much of the music played is from the pen of the master, Mendelssohn. They have achieved their remarkable success because they have first of all made their programs interesting. They play music with red blood in it, music with throbs and music with laughs and they promise at least once during the evening to whistle for the audience.

Mrs. Clyde E. Parker Entertains

Mrs. Clyde E. Parker entertained Thursday afternoon from 3 to 6, at her home, 620 North Fourth street, for her mother, Mrs. M. B. Humes, of Cass Lake, and Mrs. D. L. Fairchild of Duluth.

The rooms were very prettily decorated, the colors being yellow in the dining room, pink in the living room, soft red in the hall, and autumn colors on the porch.

Mrs. Parker was assisted in receiving by Mrs. F. E. Stout, Miss Donna Lyman of Bemidji, Mrs. H. G. Ingersoll, Miss Julia Rodenberg, Miss Hildegard Courtney, Miss Bessie Wieland and Miss Esther Bellmuth. Delicious refreshments were served.

ANNUAL MEETING

One of Largest and Most Profitable Held by First Congregational Church

One of the largest and most profitable annual meetings was held at the First Congregational church last evening. The reports show the splendid progress the church has made and the most healthy condition of all its departments.

It was made a noteworthy fact that the present minister, Rev. G. P. Sheridan has been pastor of the church longer than any other incumbent.

One of the important features of the meeting was the appointment of a committee to report on new manual and constitution; and to report their findings the last Thursday in November; this manual will doubtless provide for the re-organization of the different departments making them more efficient.

The committee appointed was, the minister, G. D. LaBar, P. W. Donovan, C. Bruhn and Miss S. Robinson.

The following officers were elected to fill the vacancies of those retiring from office:

J. A. Wilson, deacon for four years; W. A. M. Johnstone and Eric Kronberg trustees for three years; P. W. Donovan clerk; D. E. Whitney treasurer; C. Bruhn, Sunday school superintendent; E. J. Cook, auditor; C. E. Cole, head usher, and the following assistants: E. J. Cook, H. A. Rahler, S. English, S. Durham, R. Stickney, L. Slipp. The music committee: Mrs. G. D. LaBar; Mrs. C. A. Albright and S. F. Alderman.

It was also voted to authorize the treasurer to appoint an assistant.

After the business the ladies served refreshments and a social time was spent.

The tables were decorated with geraniums and alyssum, covers being laid for forty, and Miss Maybelle Grewcox, Miss Bessie Wieland and Miss Ina Sheridan catered to the guests.

The ladies had many pretty designs of crochet work, and prizes were awarded the Misses Wieland, Sheridan and Grewcox acting as judges. Mrs. J. A. Foxy in a White Fox Neck Piece

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for the United Press)
If you want to be a dashing Little run about this year Pray don't cut out your muffler They are very smart, my dear.

New York, Oct. 1.—Muffle up a little closer even if these are dog days, Indian summer and all that. If you could be foxy in a white fox neck piece on the Fourth of July surely a little thing like a worsted muffler can't put you out of the running now, prostrated victims of the hottest day of the season seeking the solace of a long cold draught pleasantly atinkle with cubes of ice in a smart hotel nearly swooned at the appearance of a chic young flapper in a Chinese tasseled hat swathed to the nose in a wide fringed worsted muffler, red and white striped like an American flag. Since then tho the heat abateth not mufflers increase mightily.

Such hectic hues affairs they are too in glowing combinations of stripes and spots and splashes while some are one color on one side and another color on the other. Solid colored ones of bright purple are fringed in gold with a quaint gold embroidered monogram on one end. A temperamental flame toned one has the reverse side in ash gray and a tigerish confection has black stripes on a tawny background.

There are all silk ones and fibre silk ones but the worsted ones have the real stamp of fashionable approval and some of these in variegated stripes of rainbow hue are decidedly reminiscent of Hi Holler, indeed the old time farmer and rural character would seem never to have been without his muffler as a first aid to chore doing. The maid today is quite as tenacious of hers on Fifth avenue as a first aid to heartbreacking.

Much originality and artistry is shown in the arrangement of these telling throat attachments. One maid with killing coquetry knots her under her left pink ear, the ingenue wears hers tied behind like a dotting mother ties a napkin around the neck of her offspring in lieu of a bib forgot. Yet another wraps hers jealously close about her chin with just one long end given its freedom to float seductively behind her shapely back. Oh there is as much art required in adjusting your muffler as there is joy in the perfect attainment.

What with the high engulfing collars, the all swathing mufflers and the all enveloping fur neck pieces I fear me chinning will become a lost pastime. For chins will be more receding this season they will be absolutely retired from public gaze. Alas the poor swain who yearns to espouse a damsel with the weak chin and plastic temperament of the clinging vine may discover to his consternation after marriage when he first glimpses her chin unmuffled that she has the firm and stable jaw structure of the advanced feminist.

This ought to be a most successful season for the lady with the triple chins. She is sure to own a collection of mufflers from A to Z for she knows to her joy that two chins in a muffler are as good as one in the open any day.

It ought to offer wonderful opportunities for reduction also for a rubber chin strap could be worn efficaciously and unseen beneath the muffler and even the muffler on its own account ought to be able to induce a profuse enough perspiration these torrid days to reduce any known or unknown quantity of chins without any gutta serena aid.

Whether you be chinny or chinless however, you'd better muffle up in a muffler or you'll muffle the hit of the season.

"The Hard Timers"

Mrs. F. W. Wieland will entertain "The Hard Timers" at a luncheon Saturday. This is a club which flourished in Brainerd some years ago and has been revived because one its members, Mrs. Anna Nevers, of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, is visiting in the city.

Pleasant Card Party

A CRY FOR PEACE IN "WAR BRIDES."

St. Paul Woman Writes Playlet Protesting Against War—To Be Presented at St. Paul Orpheum by Nazimova.

Nazimova, the Famous Russian Actress, as Joan, in "War Brides," Advocate of Universal Womanhood and "The Joan of Arc of Peace."

"War Brides," by Marion Craig Wentworth, a St. Paul woman, has been discussed everywhere—in the magazines, in newspaper editorials, and in the pulpit—where it has furnished the theme for universal peace, and the announcement that it is to be presented in St. Paul by Nazimova, the famous Russian actress, is causing special interest in this wonderful story.

There is no mawkish sentiment in "War Brides." It brings a vista of tragic life and violent death, as though it had come direct from the scenes of actual war. In making the presentation, Mme. Nazimova carries a numerous company and the realism of stage craft would make it seem that there are more people off stage than there are in sight unravelling the martial thread of the little tragedy.

The scene is laid in a small European village called Bellania; the nation is at war, and the emperor has called upon his men to rally to the colors. The excitement and bustle of recruiting is well pictured in the acting Nazimova employs.

The Arctic Sea Cow.

The arctic sea cow, an enormous kind of walrus, used to herd in large numbers on Bering Island. But in 1742 it was discovered by a passing ship and hunted with harpoons. Other ships arrived after this, and the startled sea monsters were pursued and speared with such persistence that in thirty eight years there was not one left.

Laconic.

Jimmy doesn't waste any words. He was driving a visitor across the common a few evenings ago when they saw a cart lying among the gorse with a broken shaft. The visitor asked him what had happened to it. "Met another one," he replied. "Oh, but"— "Saturday night" he interrupted.

(By United Press)
Ottawa, Canada, Oct. 1.—Major General Sam Hughes, Canadian minister of defense, is awaiting Henry Ford's answer to his telegram asking for a confirmation of the statements attributed to Ford, in which he is reported to have said that he would withdraw all his funds from banks subscribing to the allied loan. Hughes said if Ford made such a declaration it was deliberately unfriendly and sufficient reason for Canadians discontinuing all dealings with him.

In this he reiterated the statements of Mr. Hill. Other bankers unanimously opposed the loan because of the lack of collateral, and their fear it would prolong the war.

PHILIPPINES ARE EASY TO DEFEND

Glained Submarines Could Hold Islands Indefinitely.

SHOULD UNCLE SAM QUIT?

Feeling of People of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona Influenced in Mexican Matters by Proximity to Border. Rest of Country Satisfied With "Watchful Waiting."

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 1.—[Special.]—Possibly our people will learn during the next few months what a slender hold we have upon the Philippines in case a country like Japan wanted to take them and place half a dozen submarines in Philippine waters. In that case we could not send big battleships to the islands, for they would be destroyed by the underwater craft. Nor could we send transports with troops. The fact is that any country which once took possession of the Philippines could hold them until it decided to give them up voluntarily.

That may be a reason why men who are talking about taking care of American interests are advocating the building of twenty-five submarines for Philippine service alone. One of the prominent statesmen in the Democratic party has announced that he will favor placing twenty-five submarines in Philippine waters and declares that will guarantee their occupation by the United States as long as we want to hold them.

What is the Use?

If the United States is to grant the Philippines independence what is the use of risking the lives of our sailors in submarines in those dark tropical waters? It would be almost like penit servitude to order men to stay with submarines in the Philippines. If it is to be the policy of the United States to give up the islands to the people of the islands we ought to move out. Even if we fix the time eight years hence we ought to stop further expenditures on their defense, for if any country wants the islands they will find it much easier to take them after the United States has yielded possession than to force us to give them up.

Polygamy Unnecessary.

"This talk about polygamy being necessary to restock Europe with people is the silliest kind of twaddle," remarked a "government scientist." "In the first place, the world is overpopulated. The European war was necessary to reduce the overpopulation of those countries. From the beginning of time wars have been necessary to kill off the surplus. At other times famines, pestilence, earthquakes and great calamities are necessary, particularly among peace loving and peace at any price people. The United States is now overcrowded, and we can't stand crowding like those old countries. We will have to have some kind of an outlet for the surplus soon. No, the restocking of the world with humanity will not have to be accelerated by polygamy."

Lane's Big Job.

"Yes, it is a big job," remarked Secretary Lane. He was speaking of the interior department, which does not get very much in the limelight because it deals with the prosaic and vital interests of the country instead of with diplomacy and war. "I have to be in personal touch with more people than any other member of the cabinet," he added, and explained how those interested in lands, irrigation, dry farming, Alaska lands, conservation, water power sites and all else pertaining to the development of the country looked to him to pursue a course which would be for the best interests of the people. He is right; it is a big job.

Will Keep Thomas Busy.

Senator Thomas indicated in the strongest terms at the close of the last session that he would fight for closure in the senate. He now insists that he will continue the fight when the new session begins. If he tries to obtain closure he will be about the busiest man in congress.

The Border Troubles.

Of course the people realize that a great deal of the smoke that comes from the Mexican border is due to the desire of the people of that region to reach over and get the northern part of Mexico. There is no use disguising the feeling that the people of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona are all influenced in Mexican matters by their proximity to the border. It is also true that some of the troubles that occur on the border are due to the exuberance of Americans who would "just as soon have a row as not." The balance of the country seems satisfied with the "watchful waiting" policy of the administration.

The Idea Gains Ground.

The suggestion that two or three more military academies and a similar number of naval academies be built for the purpose of educating officers seems to gain ground as more candidates for these institutions appear. Senator Reed of Missouri has suggested that West Point and Annapolis ought to turn out 10,000 officers a year. And this will be followed by the statement that it would overcrowd the institutions, so it will be necessary to build several others.

Family of American Consul Saved from the Athinai, Burned at Sea by German Spies

Miss Frances Coffee, Mrs. A. B. Cooke, and her three children, Mary Louise and Earle.

Mrs. Cooke and her three children, appeared in answer to the wireless call. Since there was fire in two separate holds, the officials of the line are satisfied that it was simply one more case of German spies in America planting a bomb in the vessel. They thought she carried munitions of war to the British fleet in the Dardanelles.

A VICTORY OF LARGE IMPORTANCE

By J. W. T. Mason, for United Press

A victory of large importance has been gained by the British in Mesopotamia, toward the very heart of the district which Germany has marked on the maps as the site of her future colonial expansion in Asia.

By capturing Kut-el-Amara, the British place themselves well on the road to Bagdad and make it probable that the Arabian Nights city will fall into their possession before the end of the winter. With Bagdad lost, Germany's ambitions for colonial development in the most fruitful region of Mesopotamia must disappear unless the Germans are prepared to make important concessions in the peace conference after the war.

Kut-el-Amara is midway between Bagdad and the town of Amara itself, the entire distance being 190 miles. The British reached Amara on June 1. They have spent about four months, therefore, covering half the journey to Bagdad and early next year they should be in the capital city. The Turks are unquestionably demoralized and are badly in need of munitions.

The British are largely outnumbered, but the Ottomans are conducting their retreat as if they themselves were the inferiors. The entire Mesopotamia campaign is permitting the British to demonstrate the truth of the German theory of warfare, that inferiority in numbers must not be accepted as a necessary handicap.

The Germans at Constantinople are undoubtedly debarred from giving any help to the Mesopotamia troops or reinforcements would have been dispatched long ago. Only once, so far as is known, have the Turks sent a fresh army into the Mesopotamia campaign. That was after the British had crossed into the legendary site of the Garden of Eden at Kurna, which is at the junction of the Tigris and Euphrates rivers.

The Turks then attempted a flank attack from the west, but were driven off and eventually routed last July, when their ammunition gave out. As long as shortage of ammunition prevails in Turkey, the Germans must thus continue powerless to prevent the last and most valuable of Teutonic colonial projects from being held up for ransom at the peace conference.

Cost of Living Hits Cats

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 1.—The high cost of living virtually has depopulated Hotel Kat, one of the most exclusive cateries in the world. Hotel Kat is a local institution conducted by Miss Lena B. Pattee. Is a two-story brick building equipped with individual rooms for the occupants and a concrete court-yard in which the tables bask in the summer sun. Surrounding the court, to allay any suspicion of unduly wise cats that they are prisoners, vines grow in dense profusion and the wired walls and wild birds abounding in the leaves are calculated to keep alive the primitive element deemed essential in the nature of even the most refined cats. Each "apartment" is equipped with a window and a swinging door, and white enamel on the walls adds to the general appearance of scrupulous cleanliness.

Miss Pattee has disposed of all but nine of her tenants. She had 150 at one time, but, she explains, the expense of providing steaks for some of them, fish for others and vegetables for the strict vegetarians of her flock became so great as the cost of food mounted that she had to find new homes for her pets.

Langford and McVey Meet

Denver, Colo., Oct. 1.—By way of straightening out several former meetings between them, Sam Langford and Sam McVey will fight here tomorrow night. The two colored pugs are scheduled to go 20 rounds in the stockyards stadium, said by promoters to be one of the best settings in the country for an indoor fight. The promoters count upon the current soil products exposition here to help bring out an audience of 12,000.

WILSON IS LIKELY TO RUN AGAIN

Said He'll Accept if It's Unanimously Tendered.

TREAT NEIGHBORS UNFAIRLY

Our Financiers Hold Back When South America Seeks Money, but Rush to Europe's Aid—Result Will Be No Business With United States—China Will Reciprocate.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Sept. 29.—[Special.]—"Mr. Wilson is not going to do anything to secure a renomination, but if he is unanimously tendered the nomination by the Democratic party he will feel obliged to accept." That statement comes from a person very close to the president and accurately states the attitude of the president at the present time.

Of course we all know that the president is to have the nomination tendered him unanimously. If any attempt is made to get delegates for other persons the Wilson men will overwhelm them. No faction would stand a show of getting even the semblance of a representation in the convention against Wilson. Those who should have the temerity to try to oppose Wilson would find themselves in a very ridiculous attitude. The probabilities are that every state will take the precaution to instruct its delegation to vote solidly for Wilson's renomination.

Disposes of the One Term Plank. Those who feel authorized to speak for the president about politics, and particularly men who make a declaration such as above quoted, say that the unanimous renomination of the president effectually disposes of the one term plank in the Baltimore platform; that it is no more binding than the free silver plank of 1896. The declaration for Wilson will mean that the one term plank has been superseded.

Of course Mr. Bryan has not been consulted, but he must know that President Wilson is to be renominated and will accept. He must know that his one term plank has been thrown into the discard.

"Dollar Diplomacy."

It was the prejudice which Secretary of State Blaine had against England as much as anything else that induced him to call together the first pan-American conference and make the stupendous effort to make water run up hill—that is, make trade channels run north and south when their natural course is east and west.

Efforts since that time to capture the trade of Latin America or to extend our "spheres of influence" over those countries have been denominated "dollar diplomacy." Of course there is nothing wrong in "dollar diplomacy." Why shouldn't our diplomacy be used to bring in dollars as well as for coddling the nobility of Europe in drawing rooms and making social pets of them?

But It Won't Work.

But the real difficulty is that neither "dollar diplomacy," reciprocity—which is a term meaning something for nothing—pan-American conferences nor anything else will alter the natural course of trade and commerce. As long as the United States produces an abundance of cotton, foodstuffs, oil and other great staples she will find markets in countries where such things are not produced, and she will not sell her wares in markets of countries which largely produce the same articles as this country.

Secretary McAdoo, with the best intentions in the world, called together his pan-American financial conference. South America wanted money, still wants it, in large quantities. But our financiers are not trying to place loans and make investments in South America. But when European countries come along and want a billion they scramble to make the loan. Our financiers are like other business men—they follow the lines of trade and commerce. Latin America will do business with Europe.

His Wonderful Trip.

Congressman Austin has really seen the orient. He was one of several congressmen who made the trip to Hawaii and extended it on to Japan and China, with the result that he had an opportunity to see everything there was to be seen in those faraway countries. The Tennessee congressman believes that China is far from subdued by Japan, and that in time the country will wake up and throw off the Japanese yoke, and when that time comes she will be especially friendly to the United States, which has stood as her friend during all the recent troubles.

A Big Navy Man.

"I have always been a big navy man," declared Frank Clark of Florida. "I am in favor of a sufficient navy to place this country beyond reach of danger." This Florida congressman is like most of those representatives whose states border on the sea. They are nearly all in favor of a good navy. "We do not have to do any campaigning in the seacoast states," remarked a man who represents a society urging a large navy. "The middle states are different. Very few middle state men in congress can be pledged to a big naval program."

The Midnight Sun.
The midnight sun is not visible south of the polar circle. It is above the horizon throughout the twenty-four hours at Bodo from June 3 to July 7, at Tromsø from the 19th of May to the 22d of July and at the North Cape from the 12th of May to the 29th of July. There are corresponding periods during December, January and November when the sun is not seen, but the darkness of the winter is by no means so great as might be imagined with no sun in view.

The whiteness of the snow and the glimmer of the northern lights make a sort of perpetual twilight.—London Telegraph.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM

Under Coaching of Prof. Killian the Team Develops into Highly Polished Machine

A GAME WITH LITTLE FALLS

Season Opens Saturday, Oct. 2 and Large Number of Fans Expected to Accompany Team

With the coming of frost and the turning of the leaves football steps in. This great scientific game of football which all American colleges and high schools recognize as the leading game, has again gripped a strong hold on the Brainerd high school. The team, under the coaching of Professor Killian has been hard at work during the past three weeks and during that time has changed from a clumsy appearing set of skirmishers to a new high-polished line smashing machine.

The season opens next Saturday, October 2, at Little Falls. The Brainerd team is in excellent condition and expects to battle victoriously with the Little Falls squad. A large attendance of Brainerd fans at this game will be appreciated, and a good game from the time of the referee's whistle until it again sounds time up, is assured.

OLD SUBSCRIBER OBJECTS

Says "Hank" Spaldings' Goat Milk is all Right, But Has Doubts About Eating Guinea Hens

An old subscriber of the Dispatch in the woods about forty miles north of Brainerd was in the city today and said he had read with interest about "Hank" Spaldings' proposed goat ranch and guinea hen farm.

Goats' milk, said the subscriber, is used in the old country by patients suffering from lung trouble and proves a great restorative. But guinea hens as an article of food, that stumped the old subscriber.

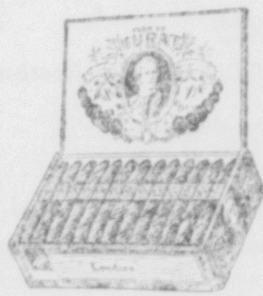

He said they had a guinea hen on the farm and used it as a watch dog. It would clutter away and give an alarm as quickly as any sky terrier. Nobody, not even the hired man in his wildest moments, had ever suggested eating the guinea hen.

However, if he had "Hank" Spaldings' personal word for it that the guinea hen was an edible article, they might tackle the hen, although the cook had doubts as to the best way to reduce the bird to a table dish. The old subscriber said it would feel like eating a dear friend to get away with that guinea hen, but he was willing to try anything once any way, and if it caused trouble and he lived through it, he would look up "Hank."

KARHUNSAARI-KETONEN MATCH

Wrestling Match at Duluth Would Cost Lot of Money and Better to Pull off Same in Brainerd

WANT GUARANTEE OF $150

Ketonen is Champion of the World and the Greatest 158 Pound Wrestler in Country

A response has been received from Waino Ketonen regarding his wrestling Henry Karhunsari of Brainerd. He will wrestle Karhunsari in Brainerd for a guarantee of $150, a finish match, or will wrestle winner take all for a side bet of $150.

Ketonen asserts he is the champion of the world and the greatest 158 pound wrestler the world has even seen, says Bruce, of the Duluth Herald. That is not mere talk, it is claimed, but is a statement that is amply backed by the feats accomplished by the little Finn, who is one of the squarest little fellows in the world.

There is no use of talking of promoting a match in Duluth between Ketonen and Karhunsari. It would not draw, Duluth wrestling fans decide. It costs $800 to open the doors of the auditorium in Duluth.

There is a chance to close the match in Brainerd. Ketonen must be guaranteed $150, or if Karhunsari is willing to bet that amount on himself, Ketonen will come from the east and make the match.

Ketonen figures on several matches in the west and if arrangements can be perfected with Karhunsari, Brainerd will be one of the cities visited in the tour.

If Karhunsari's friends have any sporting blood the $150 should be raised, tickets sold in advance for the match and one of the best drawing matches Brainerd has ever seen will be staged. A good house is needed. It will be a sporting event that will advertise Brainerd all over the east, as Ketonen comes from Worcester, Mass.

Karhunsari is being communicated with and his answer will soon be transmitted to Ketonen's manager.

Mr. Murray reserving a nice building spot to the south of his present residence there on which he will build himself a fine residence. IT'S H.C. STIVERS READERS HERE SAY

He is the Author of the Fine "Boosts for Superior" Featured in Superior Telegram

MENTIONS BRAINERD IN STORY

People May Have Pleasure of Guessing Author of Articles and Brainerd Says, "Stivers"

The Superior Telegram is publishing a series of "Boosts for Superior" in blackface type duly bordered and featured on the front page. They are very good and ought to make Superior a superior city.

One paragraph at the close states that there is another value to these articles; you have the pleasure of guessing who the author is and Brainerd people and the Brainerd Dispatch say in one breath, "It's Col. H. C. Stivers."

And that comes about in the opening sentences where the writer refers to amusements in Superior and to Madame Schumann-Heink filling the Superior opera house to overflowing. The writer continues:

"And they didn't have to go to St. Paul, or Brainerd or Duluth to see the show either."

That allusion to Brainerd can mean only that Col. Stivers, once a prominent newspaper man in Brainerd wrote the booster article and it is here reproduced in full:

Boost for Superior

Booster No. 3.

A book, of very general circulation among other wise things speaks of people who, having ears, hear not, and eyes, see not.

Sometimes it is a good thing not to hear everything and especially in Superior it is a wise thing not to hear the "knockers."

People of Superior, however, should now "see" things and if they do "see" things they will be greatly encouraged.

Did you go to Schumann-Heink last night? If so, you saw the Opera House filled to overflowing. People were turned away; the first time this occurred for a first class high-priced entertainment since before the "boom." To the people interested in Superior—and we all are—it was refreshing to watch the throng of well dressed, intelligent, happy people crowding into the Opera House. And they didn't have to go to St. Paul, or Brainerd or Duluth to see the show either.

Another suggestion as to things it would be wise to "see."

If you go up and down Tower avenue you should look at the windows and see the taste and art displayed in the decorations. You can go into many much larger cities and fail to find as beautiful window decorations as in Superior.

Use your eyes and "see things!" There are many things in and around Superior that are "good" to see.

In Booster No. 2 we told you what you did see or what you could have seen in the way of livestock and other things at the County Fair. Now get some friend to take you in his auto and go out in the country and "see" the good roads, the comfortable farm houses, the commodious barns, the cattle grazing in the fields.

You have often said that an agricultural community was the best background for a city. This being true you can easily see that Superior is rapidly acquiring a first-class background.

When you are out on this trip "see" the work train on the Interstate Railway making its line connecting the St. Louis and Allouez bays.

Then in imagination "see the future."

We will not paint this picture for you for fear you would say we use too much coloring. You can paint it for yourself and no matter how conservative you may be it must be a beautiful picture which will materialize for the enjoyment and pride, if not for you surely for your children.

Finally, don't be like the man who has eyes and sees not.

These articles attempting to disclose material conditions in Superior and give hope and encouragement to its citizens are written by various persons connected with The Telegram. We take turns at it.

Our reasons for doing this are: First, that the truth may be known and second, for the pleasure of the writers as it is a source of great pleasure to give good things to one's neighbors. "It is more blessed to give than to receive." You can see that this article is written by one of the Telegram staff who is religiously inclined. They are not all that way.

There is another value to these articles; you have the pleasure of guessing who the author is and so there is in it that opportunity dear to the American heart the chance to speculate.

P. S. Better than all else—go to the schools in the morning and "see" the great multitude of boys and girls the sure guaranty of the future. And there are 32 per cent more of them than there were in Superior last year

ORIENTALS BUSY

Princes at the Head of the Lakes at Superior Initiate a Large Class of Novitiates

Brainerd's Princes of the Orient initiate their classes when snow is on the ground in January or February. Up at the head of the lakes at Superior they get busy in the fall as evidence of which comes this article in the Superior Telegram:

"All preparations have been made and everything is in readiness for the initiation of a large class into the Oriental Princes of the World," said Hon. Judge P. S. Parker, Grand Padi-shah of the order, this morning.

Large delegations from Duluth, Proctor and other surrounding towns are expected to gather at the Moose hall, Sixth street and Tower avenue, tonight at 8:30 o'clock to witness the ceremonies. The initiation fee is $1 and its payment entitles all members to attend the banquet to be given at the close of the ceremonies. A committee has been working all day decorating the hall and getting things in readiness for the good this evening.

EAT BIG MEALS! NO SOUR, ACID STOMACH, INDIGESTION OR GAS

"Pape's Diapiesin" is Quickest, Surest Stomach Relief
Known—Try It!

Time it! Pape's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist or fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can.
There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping.
This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Advt.

When Mr. Consul Donald gets one of those dollar-and-ninety-three-cent $2 bills he tells about in Venezuela, he must feel like somebody had cheated him out of seven cents.

Mr. Consul Harry Seltzer needn't prate so about how poodle dogs are permitted to ride the street cars in Breslau, Germany. He could come right back home and see end-seat
Hogs riding on ours.

Seltzer adds that the fare is $0.0238. If they'd only make that the fare over here, what a joy it would be to insist on the exact change for a nickel from certain conductors we know.

We felicitate the Bureau of Fisheries upon its development of the mosquito-eating minnows in Mississippi.
We wish to advise, however, that if the plan is extended to Jersey, they will have to import whales.

Mr. Consul Hazeltine reports a demand in Colombia for an American typewriter with a "light touch."
Sorry, Colombia, but the lightesttouch American typewriter we ever found was no less than $5 a plate, with wine. This of course is a lighter touch than the American chorus-girl touch, still, not so light as it might be. The late models are much heavier.

A California man has insured his avacado pear-tree for $30,000. We suppose that when his little boy is bad, he says: "Willie, I hate to cut a hundred-and-fifty dollar switch to lick you with, but I'll certainly spend the money if you don't behave."

The already hopeless Chinese language is being complicated with American chewing-gum, according to Mr. Attache Arnold at Shanghai.

Women Can Finance England's War

London, Sept. 15 (By Mail).—"The women of England by their efforts can finance this war and it would be good if they would band themselves together and sign an economy pledge."

This is but one of the conclusions arrived at by the Parliamentary War Savings committee, which has solicited the help of experts to advise the housewife and the civil population the vital need of wartime thrift. Other general suggestions are:

"No person should build a house to reside in himself.

Any presents given should be war
loan vouchers or bonds.

Entertaining at restaurants should be entirely abandoned.

Changes of fashion in clothes should be ignored or suppressed.

Funerals should be conducted always with rigid economy.

Every possible servant should be given up.

No motor cars should be used except for charitable or official purposes.

All "treating" should be abandoned until we can toast a final and complete victory.
